I know it is a bummer, that is why I did not send anything Thursday.

That and a lot more, like I said when you hear who, and what, and in Buffalo, you are going to laugh your head off, especially about what was alleged, and that I actually had to do to lower their inhabitation, it's gold, gold, gold.

I have some more stuff to send, a whole new trail.
One issue now, is that the government asking the judge to restrict us from even telling the jury about the mandatory minimum consequences that come with my case, but that is not going to happen, giving our full defense, so we can not be precluded from discussing it.

So I sent you a whole trail of cases, and their appeals, and so forth, take a look and this is going to be our new trail or research.

Yes, I reckon I know it...so the overeagerness and over-involvement (to put it nicely) is finally showing it's ugly head as unbeneficial to their case?

I just realized that tomorrow is a holiday so we won't be getting mail...I got your letter from last night with the bna articles--much appreciated my Bebo....and you found the case! :) You're awesome

Enjoy your evening. Because I said so.
